++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mild and mostly dry, with sunny spells.

Today:
A bright start, with some hazy sunshine, especially in the west. Cloud will come and go through the day, allowing further sunny spells. Mostly dry, but a few light showers may develop in the east later. Mild, with light winds. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying mostly dry through the evening, with some clear spells. Patchy drizzle or light rain will move into eastern areas overnight and most areas turning cloudy before dawn. Breezy. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Friday:
Cloudy and damp on Friday morning, with patchy drizzle at times. Brighter spells move in from the southeast during the afternoon. Dry by the evening and chilly overnight. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
A bright and perhaps frosty start to Saturday, then generally cloudy for the rest of the period, with occasional brighter spells. Mostly dry, though light showers or drizzle possible. Mild.
